We Come To Your Feast (Refrain)

We come to your feast, We come to your feast, The young and the old, The frightened and the bold, The greatest and the least.

We come to your feast, we come to your feast, with the fruit of our lands and the work of our hands, we come to your feast.

We place upon your table a gleaming cloth of white, the weaving of our stories, the fabric of our lives, the dreams of those before us, the ancient hopeful cries, the promise of our future our needing and our nurture life hear before our eyes.

We place upon your table a humble loaf of bread, the gift of field and hillside, the grain by which we're fed. we come to taste the presence of him on whom we feed, to strengthen and connect us, to challenge and correct us, to love in word and deed.

We place upon your table a simple cup of wine, the fruit of human labor, the gift of sun and vine, we come to taste the presence of him we claim as Lord, his dying and living, his leading and his giving, his love in cup outpoured.

We gather round your table, we pause within our quest, we stand beside our neighbors, we name the stranger "guest", The feast is spread before us, you bid us come and dine, in blessing well uncover, in sharing well discover your substance and your sign.
