NATIONAL VOCATIONS WEEK

This Sunday marks the beginning of National Vocation Awareness Week in Australia. This week we are asked to reflect upon the truth that each one of us has been called by God in a unique way. Through our Baptism we have been called and gifted in order that Jesus' mission may continue in our world. In particular this week, marking the 150th anniversary of St John Vianney and the 100th anniversary of our own Bl. Mary MacKillop, may we make time to pray for all those who may be considering a vocation to the Priesthood or Religious life.
